

AGENDA SUMMARY PAGE
CITY COUNCIL MEETING OF: JUNE 6, 2007

DEPARTMENT: OFFICE OF COMMUNICATIONS
DIRECTOR: DAVID RIGGLEMAN

SUBJECT:

RECOGNITION OF THE HELLDORADO PARADE WINNERS

Minutes:

No motion required. A presentation was made.

MAYOR GOODMAN explained that, as part of the Centennial celebration, the Helldorado Parade was resurrected. The parade has been a part of the City's history since the 1930's. He recognized the following contest winners of the parade and acknowledged the respective representatives accepting the award: Rafael Rivera Mexican Patriotic Committee for best overall entry - EDDIE ESCOBEDO, Las Vegas Convention and Visitors Authority for best use of theme - CHUCK BSCHERER, Precision Drill Ministries of Oakland, California, for most creative - SISTER KIM and an UNIDENTIFIED GENTLEMAN, and Mayor and City Council staff for best City staff entry - AUDIRE DODGE of COUNCILMAN WOLFSON's office. All the representatives expressed their appreciation to the City and to the people that participated in designing and in building the floats.

MAYOR GOODMAN thanked staff and the contest judges. He announced that sponsorship monies would be set aside for next year.

